Enquiry the Canadian Government Ancestry Research Unit:

I am trying to find out information about my grandfather John Leonard Notley. He is British born in Clapton, London on 10th June, 1878. He appears in the UK census figures for 1891 and 1901 but not for 1911. He served in the Royal Marines from 28th December, 1898 until 23rd May, 1906. From here the trail goes cold until 1913 when he is identified as a sergeant in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Kamloops, British Columbia which, I believe was then operated by Canadian Pacific. On the 2nd April, 1913 he married Clara Elizabeth Beasley although the marriage certificate shows her as Clara Elizabeth Baseley. His wife was also British and I have found her passage from Liverpool to Montreal on 30th May, 1912. However, he does not appear to have travelled with her as I cannot find his name on the manifest. My puzzle is, therefore, when did he travel to Kamloops, when did he join the RCMP and at what rank, and what was his address when he entered Canada? On the 4th March, 1914 they had a baby daughter called Margaret Elizabeth who was my mother. John Leonard Notley then signed up for the war effort on the 21st August, 1914, 5 months after the birth of his daughter. Sadly he was killed in action at Passchendale on 15th September 1917. My grandmother was shown as a widow in the 1921 census at an address of 320 Seymour Street, Kamloops. From conversations with my mother, this was possibly a boarding house and the census shows a number of guests staying there. I am not sure why, but at some time after that the two of them moved to Toronto where, on 27th January, 1930 Clara Elizabeth Notley died. Margaret was only 16 at this time and now totally alone so her maiden aunt, also Margaret, took her in and looked after her until she married my father. I am sorry this is so long but if you are able to fill in the holes in this piece of history. I am travelling to Kamloops in August so if it is possible to meet someone who may know about this, it would be so much appreciated. Thank you so much. John Stevens
